

Basketball Pod Play Rules (Effective 1.18.21)

We are the only Y in Northern Minnesota allowing pod play basketball at this time. Please help us continue to be on the leading edge of sports pod play by following our rules. If the Y is in danger of a fine due to noncompliance of these rules, we will be forced to shut pod play down.

1. You must register your pod before any gym play time will be reserved. The registration form is available online under the Adult Sports tab or at the Y's Membership Desk.
  - a. Half-court 3-on-3 play only at this time.
  - b. Up to 8 individuals per pod.
  - c. You may register and play with one pod only.
  - d. You must be a YMCA member to sign up in a pod. No guest passes, day passes, or new punch cards (We will honor previous punch card purchases.)
2. Reservations for pod play must be made by calling the membership desk. Reservations will be accepted for one pod per half court of the gym.
  - a. Reservations for pod play will be limited to one hour only. If there is not another pod reservation made upon completion of your hour, you may stay for an additional hour.
  - b. Please do not arrive early. We can only have one pod in half of the gym at a time, and we are not to have two pods in the locker room at the same time.
3. Each member of the pod must sign in for pod play for every reservation and initial that the current rules are understood.
4. INTERPOD PLAY ONLY at this time. No mixing of the pods will be allowed. When you are not engaged in pod play, you must remain 6' apart and 12' from pod play.
5. Mask must be worn at all times, even on the sidelines.
6. If staff have to remind your pod of any of the above rules, your pod will be asked to leave the gymnasium for the day. This includes mask wearing, non-pod players on the court, or mixing of pod players. The Y cannot be in a position where we might be fined for noncompliance.

We will let you know as soon as we can lift any of the above restrictions.
